New website for 4-H online the old one will no longer work!

The new 4-H online is ready you can re-enroll at <https://v2.4honline.com>

Below are a few tips as we work through this transition.

1. Help Sheets for the families are attached. They are also available on the SDSU Extension Website: <https://extension.sdstate.edu/4honline-fairentry>
2. On the Select Participation Tab for a New 4-H Member, they will need to select I want to join 4-H as a New or Returning Member.
 - If they select, I want to participate in a 4-H activity but I do NOT want to join 4-H at this time, they will have completed all of the questions once that is selected. If at any time they would like to join 4-H, they will need to log back into 4-H Online and on the Member List page, they will need to select Enroll Now to become a 4-H Member. This will allow them to complete the 4-H enrollment process for South Dakota 4-H.
3. Clubs are referred to as Units in the new system.
4. All 4-H Members (new and old) will need to select their projects this year as it is not pre-populated this year. Also, encourage your members to add any projects that they plan on being in. There is not a limit on the number of project areas they can sign up for. Once they complete their enrollment, they cannot add more projects into the new system, the county office will need to add them.
5. Cloverbuds will only be able to sign up for the Cloverbud project area.
6. As you will see on the Health Information Page there are more fields this year. Most are not required, but the families can answer them if they want. If they are required, it will state required. If they missed a required area, they will not be allowed to the next page.

SDSU Extension will be selling the South Dakota 4-H Special Foods Cookbook from October 21 - November 6, 2020. The order will take place through the SDSU Extension Website at <https://extension.sdstate.edu/event/south-dakota-4-h-special-foods-cookbook-pre-order>.

2020 Friend of the Year Yankton Ag

Yankton Ag has been very willing and accommodating the last two years to let Yankton County 4-H use their warehouse for our fruit delivery. They have even had a forklift driver present and available to help unload the truck. They have also been a consistent donor to our Premium awards fund every year.

2020 Volunteer of the Year Steinbrecher Family

The Steinbrecher Family always goes above and beyond to donate their time to helping with various projects around the 4-H ground, especially in the horse arena. They are an all-around great family!

2020 Leader of the Year Amanda Healy

Amanda has been a great leader for her Get Up and Go club for the past two years. She really didn't know too much about 4-H when she started, but is willing to ask questions and has been a great leader to a group with a lot of young members. She is always willing to pitch in and help wherever needed in our organization.

SD 4-H & COVID 19

Community Service during virtual/hybrid programming

Introduction:

During the time of social distancing and virtual programming, many of our local clubs are struggling with ideas to fulfil their community service efforts for the year. This is a compiled list of some ideas from SD 4-H professionals and the North Central Region State programs. The list is not complete, but a starting point for those club leaders and members who may be struggling as they set goals for the upcoming year.

Remember, that for any 4-H activities to follow the current guidelines set by the state 4-H office as it relates to in-person safety requirements or need for virtual programming. Please check with your local 4-H professional to get the current guidelines.

In 4-H Spirit,

Jenae K. Hansen, MSW, MPA
SDSU Extension Volunteer
Development Field Specialist

October 2020

4-H community service ideas for virtual and hybrid programing:

- Cards and/or letters sent to the local nursing home.
 - Talk with local nursing home administrators, they may be willing to set-up “pen pals” or just accept general notes/ drawings from young people.
- Notes to first responders, healthcare workers, etc.
 - Decorate “Thank You” signs for their yards
 - Baked good, sending meals, snacks, etc. may also be welcome and appreciated. Be sure to check with medical facility administrators first.
- Pet parade past a nursing home or medical facility.
- Hat/Mitten drive
 - Donations can be made to local Samaritan group or put on electrical posts throughout town for those who need them.
- Food Drive
 - Set-up no contact drop baskets around the community.
- Park or community clean-up
 - Walking road ditches
- Skit, play, music program, etc. recorded for local nursing homes or medical facilities to view.
- Adopt a family for a holiday meal.
 - Each family in the 4-H club could be charged with bringing a different element for the meal. Set-up a no contact drop off and put one family unit in charge of taking donations to local Samaritan group or holiday meal program.
- Angel Tree
 - Again, set it up so each family is responsible for an item to buy, have one person collect the donations and put presents together.
- Resource on Social Capital Building
 - https://drive.google.com/file/d/1-x4NqpdgGVkPHDU2ToqfVrDP6svFJ412/view?fbclid=IwAR286stfALPMgtHS1p5Z_ofJW7h347M2rCqHJ3I4-M7dM3vKMOAmZe9ZH0g
- Homemade Dog/Cat toy-Donate to local shelter
 - Have each participant bring an old pair of jeans or t-shirt and a pair of scissors. Instruct participants on creating a braided dog or cat toy out of the material. This can be done over Zoom and toys can be collected at a single location or members can donate individually.
- Letter writing campaign
 - Write notes to those going through cancer, illness, etc. The notes of encouragement or drawings can be distributed to patients.
- Toiletry Drive
 - Individual members can collect and drop them off at an organizer’s porch. The organizer then delivers them to the local shelter.
 - Item ideas could include: toilet paper, paper towels, feminine sanitary items, diapers, etc.
 - Check with local shelter or Samaritan group to find their needs.
